GREAT BASIN COLLEGE

THEATRE 2014

PRESENTS

by Charles Dickens

A short and sweet adaptation of the holiday classic!

The Players

The Narrator ..... Laura Jund
Ebenezer Scrooge ..... James Yaunick
Fred (Scrooge's Nephew) ..... Titus Milan
Gentlemen ..... Thomas Stafford and Gonzalo Avila
Bob Cratchit ..... Jeff Coats
Marley ..... Colwyn Trouten
A Little Girl ..... Olivia Rice
The Ghost of Christmas Past ..... Kassidy Goddard
Fezziwig ..... Benjamin Jensen
Young Scrooge ..... Masyn Bontrager
Belle ..... Claire Steninger
The Ghost of Christmas Present ..... Meghan Jonas
Fred's Wife ..... Nikki Steninger
Mrs. Cratchit ..... Bridgette Gilboy
Tiny Tim ..... Noah Byers

The action takes place long, long ago in an around London and in our own hearts on a memorable Christmas Eve.

Musicians

Julianne Galligan ..... Piano
Thomas Stafford ..... Mandolin

Associate Director ..... Julianne Galligan
Dialects and Acting Coach ..... Joshua Brown
Costumes ..... Nikki Steninger
Stage Manager ..... Maysn Bontrager
Lead Carpenter and Run Lead ..... Timothy Burns

Design by ..... Buegger Hammar Studios

Directed by ..... John Patrick Rice

Special Thanks

Great Basin College Foundation
Dave Bailey
Elko Daily Free Press
Elko Broadcasting, KELK AM & FM and KLKO FM
KENV News 10
Ruby Broadcasting Company
The friends and family of the acting company.

A Johnny Powder Production

Director's Notes

"God bless us, every one." – Tiny Tim

Many of us celebrate Christmas, but it is the holiday spirit in its various forms which all of humanity seem to recognize in one way or another at this time of year. We celebrate our origins and our families and our friends. And sometimes we accept our short falls, and we find the courage to seek a way to do better for ourselves, our families, our friends and our world.

Charles Dickens knew this and wrote for us this timeless tale. If you haven't read the original, please do. It is one of the scariest books you will ever read. We have softened it a bit to make it a joyful story for the entire family, but the message is still clear: we must recognize how we can better serve mankind and know that it is never too late to live a life of charity and grace. Most importantly, Dickens reminds us that we will always be welcomed by the ones who love us most. -JPR

MORE ARTS TO COME!

AUDITIONS FOR LES MISERABLES
December 9 & 10, 7 p.m., GBC Theatre

GBC Student Art Show
GBC Art Gallery - Reception 12/19, 4-6 p.m.
December 4-19

ACE Events
Panorama: Selections from the Nevada Arts Council's Artist Fellowship Program
GBC Art Gallery - Reception 12/19, 4-6 p.m.
December 15-January 30

Gary Nabhan and Teresa Jordan Presentation
Western Folklife Center
January, 2015

One is Silver the Other is Gold
GBC Art Gallery
February 9-April 3

GBC Film Festival
February 13, 14, 20, and 21

Richter Uzur Duo Concert
March 5, 2015

Argentum Call for Artists and Writers
Deadline: March 13, 2015

The Great Basin College Theatre Program provides students with training and performance opportunities throughout the college's 86,000 square mile service area. Students can enroll in introductory classes in theatre, acting, oral interpretation and special topics covering anything from stage makeup to playwrighting.
For more information on the GBC Theatre Program, contact Dr. John Patrick Rice at 775.753.2240 or john.rice@gbcnv.edu.